

RÓZSAKERT
MEDICAL CENTER

Kinga Jókay, M.D.

Pediatrician

Experience

Feb 2003 –present

Head of the Department of Pediatrics

Rózsakert Medical Center

1025 Budapest

Gábor Áron 74-78

Nov 1997-June 2002

Attending Pediatrician

Northern Illinois Medical Center and Memorial Medical Center

McHenry County, Illinois, USA

November 1992-November 1996

Attending Pediatrician

MacNeal Hospital, Berwyn, Illinois, USA

Residency

June 1989-July 1992

Pediatric Resident

University of Chicago Wyler Children's Hospital

Chicago, Illinois, USA

Education

Sept 1985- June 1989

Northwestern University Medical School

Chicago, Illinois, USA

Doctor of Medicine

Sept 1983-June 1985

Northwestern University

Evanston, Illinois, USA

Honors Program in Medical Education

Bachelor of Science in Medical Science

Professional Certification and Continuing Medical Education

Fellow of the American Academy of Pediatrics

Board Certified Pediatrician

1993: initial Board Certification via the American Board of Pediatrics

2001: recertified

2008: recertified

2017: recertified

Licensed physician and surgeon in the State of Illinois: current

A minimum of 50 credit hours of continuing medical education via the American Academy of Pediatrics annually, in addition to Hungarian CME requirements